Refrein 1

Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose

Couplet 1

Cold, hot fever dream
Running shivers down my spine
Are you make-believe?
Do you live inside my mind?
Reach out, touch your face
Will you fade away?
Am I delirious? Are you serious?
It doesn't matter if you're real or fake

Refrein 2

Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose

Couplet 2

Sweet, soft whisky dream
Intoxicated love
Are you heaven-sent?
Or are you just another mind-controlling drug?
I'm not giving you up
I'ma take my best shot
And feel you rushing through my veins
You might be my wrecking ball
But I want you anyway

Refrein 3

Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose
Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose

Brug

Maybe we're not meant to last
Or even meant to be at all
May I have this final dance
Before we leave the bar?
Oh-oh-oh

Refrein 4

Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose
Babe, let's get in the car
I'll drive you away to wherever you choose
Where nobody knows who we are
There is no reason to stay
We've got nothing to lose
