[Chorus]

Something in my body, something that's in my soul
 Tells me you're somebody, someone I need to know
 No, I can't leave here sorry, if I just let this go
 Don't wanna hear my heart say, "I told you so"

[Verse 1]

All day, all night, been looking all my life
 Trying to find something new
 Still lost, but I, I'll find my way tonight
 And I know it's because of you

[Pre-Chorus]

Eyes are on me, I can feel the fire
 Not like anything that I've ever known
 Might be the one and only chance I'll get with you
 And I'll regret it if I take it too slow

[Chorus]

Something in my body, something that's in my soul
 Tells me you're somebody, someone I need to know
 No, I can't leave here sorry, if I just let this go
 Don't wanna hear my heart say, "I told you so"

[Verse 2]

Could run, could hide, but I won't sleep tonight
 Wondering what did I lose? (Oh no)
 I can't deny, no, when that feeling's right
 I bet you'll feel the way I do

[Pre-Chorus]

Oh, your eyes are on me, I can feel the fire
 Not like anything that I've ever known
 Might be the one and only chance I'll get with you
 And I'll regret it if I take it too slow

[Chorus]

Something in my body, something that's in my soul
 Tells me you're somebody, someone I need to know
 No, I can't leave here sorry, if I just let this go
 Don't wanna hear my heart say, "I told you so"

[Bridge]

Walls have fallen, heart is all in
 This is what it feels like
 Walls have fallen down
 And you know I won't fight

[Chorus]

I'm feeling something in my body, something that's in my soul
 Tells me you're somebody, someone I need to know
 No, I can't leave here sorry, if I just let this go
 Don't wanna hear my heart say, "I told you so" (I told you so)
